This book is a collection of 20 easy classical piano duets for teacher and student. The duets are arranged in progressive order of difficulty, and they are all written in the key of C major. This makes them ideal for beginner and intermediate pianists.

The duets are all taken from the works of famous classical composers such as Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, and Schubert. This gives students the opportunity to learn about different styles of classical music while they are developing their playing skills.

The book includes a brief to each duet, which provides information about the composer and the piece. This information can be helpful for students who are interested in learning more about classical music.

The duets are also accompanied by a CD recording. This recording can be used by students to practice their playing or to listen to the pieces for enjoyment.

Easy Classical Piano Duets For Teacher And Student Alfred Masterwork Editions is a valuable resource for piano teachers and students. The duets are well-written and engaging, and they are sure to help students develop their playing skills and their appreciation for classical music.

Benefits of Playing Duets

There are many benefits to playing duets, including:

- Improved coordination: Playing duets requires students to coordinate their hands and feet, which can help to improve their overall coordination.
- Enhanced listening skills: Duets require students to listen to each other and to adjust their playing accordingly. This can help to improve their listening skills and their ability to play in an ensemble.
- Increased motivation: Playing duets can be a fun and rewarding experience, which can help to motivate students to practice and improve their skills.
- Greater appreciation for music: Duets can help students to develop a greater appreciation for music by exposing them to different styles and composers.

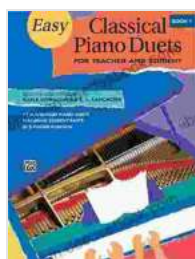

How to Use This Book

This book can be used in a variety of ways, depending on the needs of the teacher and students. Here are a few suggestions:

- As a supplement to piano lessons: The duets in this book can be used as a supplement to piano lessons. They can be used to reinforce concepts that are being taught in lessons, or they can be used to provide students with additional practice.
- For group piano lessons: The duets in this book are ideal for group piano lessons. They can be used to teach students about different styles of classical music, and they can help students to develop their ensemble playing skills.
- For self-study: The duets in this book can also be used for self-study. Students can use the book to learn about different styles of classical music, and they can practice their playing skills at their own pace.
