Fiction

N.B. An 'E.g.' before an answer means that it's just a suggestion.

For questions which ask for an answer, a suggestion or an opinion, there must always be a reason given. Pupils answer on their own paper. They must not write anything on the question paper. They must not use a calculator. They should give a separate sheet of work if needed. They should not talk to the class.

Key Skills and Knowledge

To master fiction for the KS2 SATs, pupils need to develop the following key skills and knowledge:

1. Reading comprehension: Pupils must be able to read and understand fiction texts, including identifying the main events, characters, and themes.
2. Writing: Pupils must be able to write their own fiction texts, using a range of techniques such as description, dialogue, and narrative structure.

3. Grammar: Pupils must have a good understanding of grammar, including the use of tenses, punctuation, and spelling.
4. Vocabulary: Pupils must have a wide vocabulary, including an understanding of figurative language and literary devices.

Sample Questions

The following are some sample questions that may appear on the 2024 KS2 English SATs fiction papers:

Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

> The old man sat on the park bench, watching the children play. He smiled as he remembered being a child himself, running and playing in the park. But those days were long gone now. He was old and tired, and his body ached. He sighed and looked up at the sky. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing. But the old man couldn't enjoy the beauty of the day. He was too sad.

1. What is the main idea of the passage?
2. What is the old man's mood?
3. What does the old man remember?

Writing

Write a story about a time when you went on an adventure. Use descriptive language and dialogue to bring your story to life.

Practice Materials

There are a number of practice materials available to help pupils prepare for the KS2 English SATs fiction papers. These materials include:

- Past papers
- Practice workbooks
- Online resources

Pupils should use these materials to practice their reading comprehension, writing, grammar, and vocabulary skills. The more practice they have, the better prepared they will be for the tests.

Mastering fiction for the 2024 KS2 English SATs is essential for pupils who want to achieve their full potential in the tests. By developing the key skills and knowledge outlined in this guide, pupils can improve their reading comprehension, writing, grammar, and vocabulary skills. With practice, they can also learn to write their own fiction texts that are creative, engaging, and well-written.
