

Twenty Years At Hull House With Autobiographical Notes

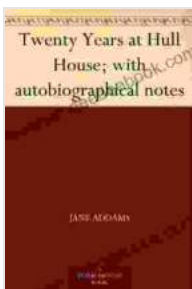

By Jane Addams

Twenty Years at Hull House with Autobiographical Notes is a classic work of American literature and sociology. The book is a memoir of Addams's experiences as the founder and head resident of Hull House, a settlement house in Chicago. Addams's writing is both personal and analytical, and she provides a valuable perspective on the social and economic conditions of the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

Addams was born in Cedarville, Illinois, in 1860. She graduated from Rockford College in 1881 and then traveled to Europe, where she was inspired by the work of social reformers such as Toynbee Hall in London. In 1889, she co-founded Hull House with Ellen Gates Starr. Hull House was a settlement house that provided social services to the poor and working class of Chicago. Addams lived at Hull House for over 40 years, and she became a leading figure in the settlement house movement.
