The Westsiders were a hip hop group from Los Angeles, California, who released their debut album, "The Classic," in 1991. The album was a critical and commercial success, and is considered one of the most important albums in the history of 90s hip hop.

The group was formed in 1989 by rapper WC and DJ Aladdin. They were later joined by rapper Ice Cube, who was a member of the groundbreaking rap group N.W.A. The Westsiders' sound was a mix of traditional hip hop with funk and soul influences. Their lyrics were often humorous and self-deprecating, but they also tackled serious issues such as racism and poverty.

The Classic
